

Nouy lives in a country village. One day, her cousin from the city comes to visit. Nouy is excited to show him around. Together they visit many places such as the local market, the Buddhist temple, and the rice paddy field. Nouy's cousin likes meeting interesting new people and learning about the village that Nouy loves so much.

Room to Read seeks to transform the lives of millions of children in developing countries by focusing on literacy and gender equality in education. Working in collaboration with local communities, partner organizations and governments, we develop literacy skills and a habit of reading among primary school children, and support girls to complete secondary school with the relevant life skills to succeed in school and beyond.
