

Advice and Wit is a story about two friends, Arti and Buddhi. Buddhi has a beautiful garden with many colorful flowers. One day the flowers suddenly begin to die, so Buddhi asks Arti for some advice as to how to save his garden. Arti gives him lots of advice as to what to do, and he follows this advice without really thinking about it. He then has many other new problems with his garden and he realizes that he should not just follow other's advice without thinking and use his own sense as well.

Room to Read seeks to transform the lives of millions of children in developing countries by focusing on literacy and gender equality in education. Working in collaboration with local communities, partner organizations and governments, we develop literacy skills and a habit of reading among primary school children, and support girls to complete secondary school with the relevant life skills to succeed in school and beyond.
