Room to Read seeks to transform the lives of millions of children in developing countries by focusing on literacy and gender equality in education. Working in collaboration with local communities, partner organizations and governments, we develop literacy skills and a habit of reading among primary school children, and support girls to complete secondary school with the relevant life skills to succeed in school and beyond.

Mokgaetji Marutla Tladi was born in 1980 at Malope Village, Ga-Masemola. She has always wanted to write stories to entertain kids and make learning a fun and enjoyable time. She has written radio drama titled Tshelete Ya Mma for SABC Thobela FM.

Ntibile Zonke is a graduate from the University of Stellenbosch with a BA degree in Visual Communication Design. He started drawing at an early age and this made him excel in subjects like Arts & Culture and Design back in High School. He also attended the Frank Joubert Art Centre for 3 years in Newlands, Cape Town.

He came into contact with Room to Read when he was still in university and has illustrated two books for the organisation which are A Special Secret and Caterpillar and The Moon.
