"I want to fly like
the butterfly does."

"Follow me!" said the butterfly.

"But I do not have wings,
I cannot fly."

"I know, I'll use palm leaves to make wings!"

“Flap your wings hard to fly!”
cried the butterfly.

"I cannot seem to fly," said Piggy.
"Let me try one more time."

"Look! I can fly!" Piggy said leaping off the branch.

"Oh no! Why did I fall?
I do not have wings like you, so I will have to be okay with not flying."
